23. The conduct of Defendant, UNITED HOME, was intentional, willful, malicious, and in reckless disregard to the rights of Plaintiffs, and said conduct is sufficiently egregious in nature to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
BAD FAITH

24. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 23 above as if fully plead herein, and for further claims against the Defendants, UNITED HOME, ACTION CLAIM, and RUSSELL, (sometimes referred to hereafter as the "DEFENDANTS"). alleges as follows:
25. Defendants, UNITED HOME, ACTION CLAIM, and RUSSELL, owed a duty to Plaintiffs to deal fairly and act in good faith.
26. Defendants, UNITED HOME, ACTION CLAIM, and RUSSELL, breached their duty to deal fairly and act in good faith by engaging in the following acts and/or omissions:
- a. Failing to pay the full and fair amount for the property damage sustained by Plaintiffs during the May 23, 2013 wind/hailstorm in accordance with the terms and conditions of the insurance policy.
 - b. Failing to pay all additional coverages due and owing to Plaintiffs under the terms and conditions of the insurance policy
 - c. Reducing the fair amount of Plaintiffs' claims unfairly and without a valid basis.
 - d. Violating the Unfair Claims Settlement Practices Act, 36 O.S. §§1250.1-1250.16 by wrongfully, intentionally and repeatedly withholding benefits and coverages due and owing to the Plaintiffs under the terms and conditions of the insurance policy.
 - e. Wrongfully, intentionally and repeatedly failing to communicate all coverages and benefits applicable to Plaintiffs' claim.
 - f. Forcing Plaintiffs to obtain legal counsel to recover insurance benefits entitled to under the terms and conditions of the insurance contract.

- g. Failing to conduct a fair and objective investigation of the damage to Plaintiffs' property.
 - h. Intentionally engaging in an outcome oriented investigation.
 - i. Intentionally engaging in a systematic scheme designed to save money otherwise due and owing to the Plaintiffs and other similarly situated insureds as a cost-saving mechanism.
27. Defendants, UNITED HOME'S, ACTION CLAIM'S, and RUSSELL'S obligations to the Plaintiffs arise from both express written terms under the insurance policy and under the Oklahoma Insurance Code as well as implied obligations under Oklahoma law.
28. Defendants, UNITED HOME'S, ACTION CLAIM'S, and RUSSELL'S failure to implement and/or follow the statutory impositions under the Oklahoma Insurance Code constitute bad faith.
29. Defendants, UNITED HOME'S, ACTION CLAIM'S, and RUSSELL'S conduct is a material breach of the terms and conditions of the insurance contract entered into with the Plaintiffs and constitutes bad faith.
30. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants, UNITED HOME'S, ACTION CLAIM'S, and RUSSELL'S unfair claims handling conduct, Plaintiffs' claim was unnecessarily delayed, inadequately investigated, and wrongfully underpaid. Said actions resulted in additional profits and a financial windfall to Defendant, UNITED HOME.

31. As a result of the Defendants, UNITED HOME'S, ACTION CLAIM'S, and RUSSELL'S conduct the Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress, and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs, and all interest allowed by law.

33. Plaintiffs further allege Defendant, UNITED HOME enjoyed increased financial benefits and ill-gotten gains as a direct result of the intentional and wrongful conduct described above, which resulted in further damage to the Plaintiffs.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

34. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 33 above as if fully plead herein, and for further claims against the Defendants alleges as follows:
35. Due to the unequal bargaining power between Plaintiffs and Defendants, the quasi-public nature of insurance, and the potential for Defendants to unscrupulously exploit that power at a time when Plaintiffs were most vulnerable, a special relationship akin to that of a fiduciary duty exists between Plaintiffs and Defendants.
36. As a result of the special relationship, Defendants owed a fiduciary duty to their insured to act in a manner consistent with the best interests of their insureds.

37. A fiduciary duty existed between Plaintiffs and Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC. The overwhelming influence of Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC. over Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs' dependency and trust in its insurance agent, and Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC.'s assurance it could procure the insurance policy Plaintiffs requested creates a fiduciary status.
38. Given the specialized knowledge the Defendant, UNITED HOME, possessed with regard to the terms and conditions of the insurance policy, the Defendant, UNITED HOME'S duty to act reasonably created such a special relationship so as to make the Defendant, UNITED HOME, a fiduciary.
39. The Defendants breached their fiduciary duties owed to the Plaintiffs.
40. As a result of Defendants' breach of fiduciary duties, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress, and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs, and all interest allowed by law.
41. The conduct of Defendants was intentional, willful, malicious, and in reckless disregard to the rights of Plaintiffs, and said conduct is sufficiently egregious in nature to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENCE IN THE PROCUREMENT OF INSURANCE

42. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 41 above as if fully plead herein, and for further claims against the Defendants alleges as follows:
43. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., was familiar with

Plaintiffs and had been hired as Plaintiffs' primary insurance agent for the property insurance needs. In this capacity, Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., advised Plaintiffs of the need to purchase and maintain the more expensive replacement cost coverage so that its business dwelling and personal property would be replaced in the event of damage or destruction to their property by a covered loss.

44. Plaintiffs relied upon Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC.'s representations and annually purchased the suggested coverage by paying a higher premium each year.
45. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., procured the subject replacement cost policy for Plaintiffs.
46. At all times relevant hereto, the Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., was an agent and/or an ostensible agent of Defendant, UNITED HOME.
47. Defendant, UNITED HOME, owed Plaintiffs a duty to act in good faith and to exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence in the procurement of insurance for Plaintiffs, and in the notification of insurance coverage options to the Plaintiffs.
48. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., had a duty to inform Plaintiffs of all coverages, benefits, limitations and exclusions in the coverage procured.
49. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., breached its duty owed to Plaintiffs and is liable to the Plaintiffs because the insurance requested by Plaintiffs was not procured as promised and Plaintiffs suffered a loss.
50. Defendant MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC. breached its duty owed to Plaintiffs by:

- a. Procuring an insurance policy that did not serve to actually replace its property and personal property when it was damaged or destroyed by a covered loss.
 - b. Procuring an insurance policy that did not accurately reflect the replacement cost of Plaintiffs' dwelling.
 - c. Failing to inform Plaintiffs of the limitations of the insurance policy procured for Plaintiffs.
51. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., was negligent and breached its duty owed to Plaintiffs by failing to review the policy procured for Plaintiffs to ensure it provided appropriate and adequate coverage.
 52. Plaintiffs reasonably believed the insurance policy procured and maintained by Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., was in conformity to their agreement with Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC.
 53. Plaintiffs relied upon Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., to procure and maintain appropriate and adequate coverage.
 54. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC. knew or should have known Plaintiffs relied upon it to procure appropriate and adequate coverage, and it is foreseeable that the failure to procure appropriate and adequate coverage for Plaintiffs could unnecessarily expose Plaintiffs to significant harm, losses and damages.
 55. The Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC. was an agent and/or an ostensible agent of Defendant, UNITED HOME, and Defendant, UNITED HOME is vicariously liable for the conduct of Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY

INS. AGENCY, INC.

56. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress, and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs, and all interest allowed by law.
57. The conduct of Defendants was intentional, willful, malicious, and in reckless disregard to the rights of Plaintiffs, and said conduct is sufficiently egregious in nature to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
CONSTRUCTIVE FRAUD AND NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

58. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 57 above as if fully plead herein, and for further claims against the Defendants alleges as follows:
59. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., had a duty to exercise reasonable diligence and skill in obtaining and notifying Plaintiffs of insurance coverage options.
60. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., breached its duty to Plaintiffs by misrepresenting to Plaintiffs as follows:
- a. That the insurance procured was truly one of "replacement."
 - b. That the amount of coverage procured, and for which premiums were paid, was equal to the estimated replacement cost of Plaintiffs' property.
 - c. That the amount of coverage procured would provide the coverage necessary for Plaintiffs to replace its property in the event it was destroyed by a covered event.

- d. That the insurance policy procured would comply with Plaintiffs' reasonable expectations that the property would be restored to its pre-loss condition in the event of a covered loss.
- 61. That as a result of Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC.'S breach of duty, Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., gained an advantage to the prejudice and detriment of Plaintiffs.
- 62. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., misrepresented the nature of the insurance policy procured for Plaintiff.
- 63. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., misrepresented the policy as one which was necessary to provide appropriate and adequate coverage for Plaintiffs' business property and personal property.
- 64. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., misrepresented the policy was one which was in an amount necessary to replace Plaintiffs' property in the event it was destroyed by a covered event.
- 65. Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC.'S misrepresentations constitute constructive fraud.
- 66. Plaintiffs was induced to accept and purchase the Defendant, UNITED HOME, policy of insurance by Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC.'S misrepresentations and constructive fraud.
- 67. Plaintiffs were misled by Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC.'s misrepresentations and constructive fraud.
- 68. The Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC., was an agent and/or an ostensible agent of Defendant, UNITED HOME for purposes of these misrepresentations, and as such the Defendant, UNITED HOME, is vicariously liable for the conduct of Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC..

69. As a result of the Defendants' misrepresentations and constructive fraud, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs, and all interest allowed by law.
70. Plaintiffs are further entitled to reformation of the insurance contract to provide coverage consistent with the Defendant, MURRAY COUNTY INS. AGENCY, INC.'s misrepresentations.
71. The conduct of Defendants was intentional, willful, malicious, and in reckless disregard to the rights of Plaintiffs, and/or was grossly negligence, and is sufficiently egregious in nature to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENT UNDERWRITING

72. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 71 above as if fully plead herein, and for further claims against the Defendants alleges as follows:
73. At the time the insurance policy was sold to Plaintiffs, Defendants were obligated to utilize reasonable valuation methodology to determine the costs which Defendants considered necessary to cover the replacement costs of Plaintiffs' property. As such, Defendants were then prohibited from writing a policy for more insurance than they considered necessary to cover the replacement cost of Plaintiffs' property as determined at the time the subject policy was written.
74. Thereafter, Defendants owed a duty to Plaintiffs to exercise good faith, reasonable care, skill and expertise in the underwriting analysis to ensure the insurance policy provided appropriate and adequate coverage once the insurer-insured relationship was established.

75. Defendants breached their duties to Plaintiffs to exercise good faith, reasonable care, skill and expertise in failing to establish an accurate and consistent methodology for calculating the replacement cost of Plaintiffs' dwelling and/or personal property.
76. Defendants' breach resulted in both inconsistent and inaccurate replacement cost valuations whereby the Plaintiffs paid premiums for policy limits that did not accurately reflect the risks insured.
77. Defendants further breached their duties by automatically applying Defendant, UNITED HOME's annual inflationary adjustments which were utilized to increase Plaintiffs' policy limits and premiums without regard to whether or not the inflationary adjustment increase was necessary in relation to the dwelling's valuation at the time.
78. The conduct and inconsistencies referenced herein violate Defendants' duties of good faith and fair dealing implicit in the insurance contract with Plaintiffs and other Oklahoma policyholders.
79. Defendants' obligations arise from both the express written terms of the policy and the Oklahoma Insurance Code and Defendants' failure to implement and/or follow Oklahoma's statutory Insurance Code also constitutes unfair claims handling.
80. Defendants' conduct referenced herein constitutes a breach of this duty of good faith and fair dealing which is inherent in all insurance contracts within the State of Oklahoma.

81. Defendants' failure to procure the proper insurance product morally and legally requires it to be held to a duty of reasonable care, and that the burden of the resulting liability for breach of this duty be imposed upon them. This duty exists to foreseeability of the harm to Plaintiffs which could occur as a result of failure to underwrite or procure adequate and appropriate insurance; the procurement of inadequate and improper insurance is the direct cause of the harm and injury suffered by Plaintiffs; and the moral blame for the failure to procure and underwrite the current policy lies with the Defendants.
82. Further, the burden on the Defendants of imposing a duty to exercise care in procuring and underwriting the correct insurance policy for the needs of the insured (with resulting liability for breach thereof) is minimal given the expertise and uneven bargaining power of the Defendants, and Defendants' representations of being an expert in the field of providing insurance to the general public, such as Plaintiffs.
83. Plaintiffs relied on Defendants to conduct an appropriate underwriting analysis to ensure and maintain an insurance policy which provided appropriate and adequate coverage.
84. Defendants breached their duties owed to Plaintiffs by failing to conduct an appropriate underwriting analysis which resulted in issuing a policy of insurance to Plaintiffs that did not provide appropriate and adequate coverage to Plaintiffs.
85. As a result of the Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress, and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs, and all interest allowed by law.

86. The conduct of Defendants was intentional, willful, malicious, and in reckless disregard to the rights of Plaintiffs, and/or was grossly negligence, and is sufficiently egregious in nature to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATIONS OF OKLAHOMA CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT

87. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 86 above as if fully plead herein, and for further claims against the Defendants alleges as follows:

88. Plaintiffs bring forth each and every cause of action alleged above under the Oklahoma Consumer Protection Act pursuant to its tie-in provision.

89. At all material times hereto, Plaintiffs were consumers who purchased insurance products and services from Defendant.

90. Defendant has violated the Oklahoma Consumer Protection Act in the manners including, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) Representing that the agreement confers or involves rights, remedies, or obligations which it does not have, or involve, or which are prohibited by law;
- (2) Failing to disclose information concerning goods or services which was known at the time of the transaction when such failure to disclose such information was intended to induce the consumer into a transaction that the consumer would not have entered into had the information been disclosed;
- (3) Engaging in an unconscionable course of conduct.

(4) At all material times hereto, Plaintiffs were consumers of insurance services or products of Defendant, and Plaintiffs would show that Defendant's violations as set forth above, constitute a violation of the Oklahoma Consumer Protection Act, causing Plaintiffs damages.

(5) By accepting insurance premiums but refusing without a reasonable basis to pay benefits due and owing, Defendant has engaged in an unconscionable action or course of action as prohibited by the Oklahoma Consumer Protection Act, in that Defendant took advantage of Plaintiffs' lack of knowledge, ability, experience, and capacity to a grossly unfair degree, that also resulted in a gross disparity between the consideration paid in the transaction and the value received.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF COMMON LAW
DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

91. Plaintiffs adopt and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 91 above as if fully plead herein, and for further claims against the Defendants alleges as follows:
92. Defendants' conduct, as described above, constitutes a breach of the common law duty of good faith and fair dealing owed to it's insured pursuant to the insurance contract.
93. Defendants' conduct, as described above, was in direct contradiction of the applicable industry standards of good faith and fair dealing.
94. Defendants' failure, as described above, to adequately and reasonable investigate, evaluate, and pay the benefits owed under the insurance contract, knowing full well through the exercise of reasonable diligence that its liability was reasonably clear, resulted in a breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the Plaintiffs pray for judgment against Defendants, UNITED HOME INSURANCE COMPANY, MURRAY COUNTY INSURANCE AGENCY, INC., ACTION CLAIM U.S. INC., and STEVEN RUSSELL, for:

- a. Payment of all contractual benefits for all coverages afforded to Plaintiffs under the subject policy of insurance for damage to its dwelling and personal property caused by the May 23, 2013, wind/hail storm, together with interest on all amounts due;
- b. Compensory damages for intentional infliction of emotional distress and mental pain and suffering;
- c. Disgorgement of the incureased financial benefits derived by Defendants as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful or intentional, willful, malicious and/or reckless conduct;
- d. Actual and punitive damages each in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00); and
- e. Attorneys' fees, costs and interest, including pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.
